

I object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force thier stations to broadcast a program that is intended to influence the upcoming presidential election.

Sinclair uses public airwaves free of charge, and should not be allowed to so blatantly propagandize the citizens in thier markets.

Sinclair's recent actions make clear the need for tighter media regulation if we desire to have media that promotes, rather than constricts, democracy.

-ET